

Building Hope.

Like the dogs we help to save, Eleventh Hour Rescue needs a new home. Our mission in 2012 is to build a new home base from which we can continue our work. In our planned new location in Mount Olive, NJ we hope to build a larger, state-of-the-art facility that provides temporary and long-term shelter and care for the animals we save.

EHR currently rents property that is on the market to be sold. The clock is ticking. Should the property be sold, we will have no place to go and we will not be able to provide for the animals in our care.

So it is with a sense of urgency that we embark on this new endeavor to build Eleventh Hour Rescue a permanent, self-owned property. The planned design will include 70 outdoor and indoor kennels, a medical treatment room, a meet & greet room, and protected open-space areas for our dogs to exercise and play.

When do we move into our permanent home? That depends on you and your generosity. Our goal is to finish the facility by the end 2012, but need the remaining funds to continue the work. When complete, we can continue providing animals with care, food, plenty of love – and a brand new woof over their heads!

The Building Hope campaign for Eleventh Hour Rescue offers many naming opportunities that enable donors to personalize their commitment with either the name of the donor or with the name of another individual or pet the donor wishes to honor or memorialize.

A significant way to honor your family, your organization or pay lasting tribute in memory of a loved one is by dedicating a portion of our proposed new building. The following tribute/memorial opportunities have been set forth for this campaign. Please be aware that the actual construction cost for each item may not bear any resemblance to the amount associated with the item, but rather reflects the desirability of the dedication opportunity.

Please email donate@ehrdogs.org or call 973-664-0865 to determine if your selection is still available. If your selection is confirmed available, please mail along with this sponsor form, a check payable to Eleventh Hour Rescue to PO BOX 218, Rockaway NJ 07866.
